Declarations of Interest

In accordance with the policy of the Cochrane Collaboration, neither the Australasian Cochrane Centre nor its Branches in New Zealand, Singapore and Thailand receive funding from commercial sources, defined as any for-profit manufacturer or provider of health care, or any other for-profit source with a real or potential vested interest in the findings of a specific review. All directors of Centres and Branches are required to complete personal declaration of interest statements and to disclose all relationships with commercial organisations. The term 'related organisation' in the questions below means any organisation related to health care or medical research.

Pisake Lumbiganon, Director of the Thai Cochrane Network of the Australasian Cochrane Centre has completed this declaration of interest. Answers given correspond to the last five years.
